I hereby give permission for my child to travel with the Daviess County High School Marching Band during all 2011 Marching Band Events as per the calendar on the reverse of this form. I hereby give permission for my child to be under the direction and supervision of Mr. Dale and any chaperone or staff member that may be assigned. I understand that my child must travel with the Daviess County Marching Band to each destination and remain with the Band while there. I understand that I may transport my child home from a site other than Daviess County High School. I understand that in accordance with School Board Policy, only a parent/guardian may transport a child home from a site other than Daviess County High School and that this is only allowed after the event when the child is released by Mr. Dale. I understand that, to get my child released, a parent/guardian signature is required on a band form held by the assigned chaperone of my child's bus. I understand that upon arrival to Daviess County High School, I am responsible for providing/arranging my child's transportation home in a timely manner. If rides home for a student are deemed habitually late, the student may be removed from participation with no refund of fees.
